

Victorian Construction Materials Laboratories Association Inc

Associate Membership Information Sheet

Who should become associate members?

In certain cases organisations do not wish to be involved in the operations of an Association due to legal issues or other corporate reasons.

All such organisations involved in the construction materials testing and associated industries are encouraged to join the Association as Associates.

Associates do not have to right to vote at general and annual general meetings and may not be members of the committee

What do I get for my annual fee?

As part of your associate membership, you will have access to:

- Regular news sheet
- Update to date information on what is happening in our industry
- Attendance at regular technical meetings
- Advertisement of your association with VCMLA (i.e Associate of VCMLA, Inc)
- Links to your business through the Association's web site
- Participation in the Association's activities by one individual of your organisation
